

The Hamilton Law Association

Robert Hooper

The Hamilton Law Association is pleased to announce that Robert Hooper has been acclaimed as the 75th President of The Hamilton Law Association for the 2017-2018 term.

As a Certified Specialist in Civil Litigation with The Law Society of Upper Canada, Robert Hooper practises Personal Injury law in the Hamilton area. After graduating from the University of Ottawa in 1991 he went on to article at Blake Cassels Graydon in Toronto.

Robert then moved to Hamilton to practice insurance defence for Sullivan Festeryga Lawlor & Arrell. After years of defence work, he switched focus and began working with Morris Law Group. In March 2001, he found Hooper Law in the heart of Hamilton, Ontario.

The Office of Hooper Law was built on Rob's reputation of excelling at trial work along with his team of specialized personal injury lawyers, and professional staff.

Rob Hooper can be found, when not practicing law, focusing his time, energy and passion on such organizations as Canadian Women's Wheelchair Basketball, Big Brothers Big Sisters, and The Living Rock to name a few. He is also the head coach of the Redeemer University Women's Basketball Team.

Robert now leads our Association of over 1,014 accomplished and respected members whose history of commitment and service to the community dates from 1879.
