The Hamilton Law Association presents Women in the Law: an event designed to encourage, inspire and support women in the legal profession.

Hear from our diverse panel of speakers as we broaden perceptions, break stereotypes and celebrate women in law.

Did you know that nearly half of practicing lawyers in Canada are women? In 2010, the Law Society of Ontario released a report on 'Racialization and Gender of Lawyers in Ontario'. It found that nearly 60% of the youngest lawyers in Ontario are women, a significant demographic shift driven in large part by the increasing number of racialized women entering the profession.
